

STORY

NARRATIVE CURVE

STORYBOARD

STYLE TILE

CHARACTERS

SPRITE SHEET AND BACKGROUND

LINK

STORY

Logline:

A thrilling story about chasing a pastries-eating criminal down the Parisian streets with the commonly known duo Mr. Baguette & Mr. Cracker.

Message:

You don't need a college degree to chase down the criminals. Sometimes a common sense is more valuable than a degree.

Genre:

Detective story

On Thursday 18th September 2003, something terrible happened. A piece of Mr. Baguette has been bitten off. He ran for help to La Rue De La Biscuit Salé, where his beloved friend Mr. Cracker lived. Mr. Cracker had a college degree, so he was the one most likely to succeed in finding this criminal. On their way to the crime scene, Mr. Cracker noticed something on the ground. It was a crumble of Mr. Baguettes' lower left part of the body! They took the crumble to the lab and after hours of research, screening, testing, talking to scientists they found DNA of the one who has committed the terrible crime. But let's back up for a little bit. If you think about it, Mr. Baguette, sleeping in Parisian street where all the dirt and wild crimes happen. Who could be the biggest suspect in this crime? Who goes crazy when they eat a tiny piece of pastries and who's been the worst enemy of all in the past decade of pastries? Yes, you guessed it. Pigeons. However, because of the college degree Mr. Cracker has, he has learnt how to achieve a goal the longest way possible, with unnecessary gadgets and resources – whilst he could just use his common sense.

ANALYZED WITH THE NARRATIVE CURVE

1 - scene one - the crime

2 - scene three - the evidence

3 - scene five and six - the results and a face of the villain

Gradual tension. Beginning with the opening scene where we find out that something bad happened. Tension gets higher the moment Mr. Cracker and Mr. Baguette find the evidence. We are getting closer. The peak is at the end where we find out who is the criminal.

STORYBOARD

Scene:
intro

Music:
soft french instrumental music

Interaction:
the story starts by clicking on the characters

Time:
About 6 sec

STORYBOARD

Scene 1:
Terryfing realization.

Music:
soft french - into intense

Duration:
18 sec

Story:
Mr. Baguette wakes up in a street and realizes that lower left part of his body has been bitten off.

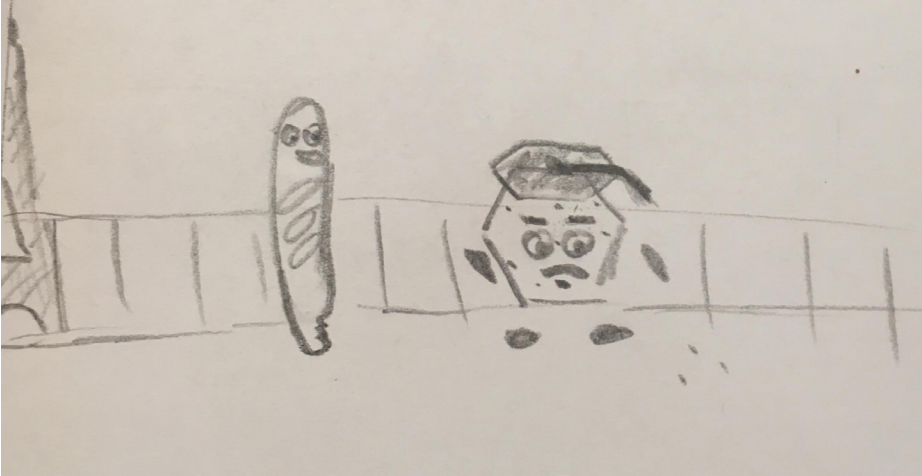

Scene 2:
Getting help.

Music / Sounds:
soft french, birds singing in the background

Duration:
10 sec

Story:
Mr. Baguette walks to La Rue de Biscuit Salé to ask his friend Mr. Biscuit for help with solving the crime.

STORYBOARD

Scene 3:
Finding evidence.

Music:
soft french - into intense

Duration:
15 sec

Story:
While walking back to the crime scene, Mr. Crecker notices crumbs on the ground. Looks suspicious. They decide to take it to the lab.

Scene 4:
In the laboratory.

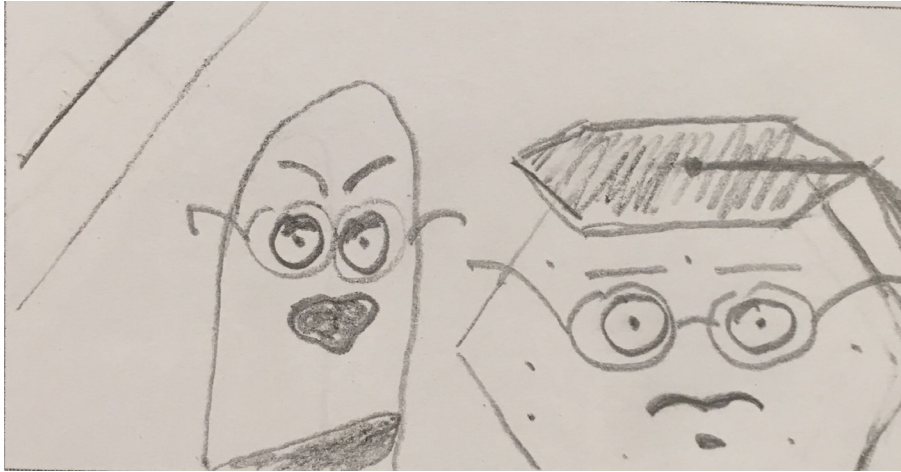

Music / Sounds:
computer sounds in the background, distant chatter

Duration:
20 sec

Story:
Mr. Baguette and Mr. Crecker in the lab doing research, screening, tests, talking to scientists to find out the DNA result.

STORYBOARD

Scene 5:
Ending, intense close-up. Relization who is behind all of this.

Music:
intense

Duration:
8 sec

Story:
The results came in. The DNA belongs to a local thug called Pigeon the Pigeon.

Scene 6:
Ending - SLUT aka the end + credits

Music / Sounds:
french music with pigeon sounds

Duration:
10 sec

Story:
none

STYLE TILE

Chosen Style:
Lisa Vertudaches

- Hand-drawn style, pastel colors
- Simple, minimal, goofy and cute characters
- Characters are usually not in high contrast with the background
- Organic shapes
- Shades and gradient give the illustrations 3D feeling
- Stroke is not used
- Hand-written typography

Character inspiration:

Color Palette: pastel colors

AC6C39

E8BF8B

FFFF77

C8C8C8

F9FEFF

CHARACTERS

Mr. Cracker

Gender: male

Age: unspecified

Achievements: college degree

Friends: Mr. Baguette

Mr. Cracker is a cracker who doesn't care about many things, however his beloved friend Mr. Baguette is not one of them. He is a loyal friend. Usually lazy but if there is something that needs to be solved with his skills he is right there. He is very proud of his biggest achievement and that's a college degree. Since he has accomplished everything he wanted - there is nothing much that excites Mr. Cracker. Also, because he is very proud of himself, he never puts down his graduation hat.

CHARACTERS

Mr. Baguette

Gender: male

Age: unspecified

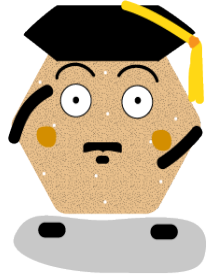

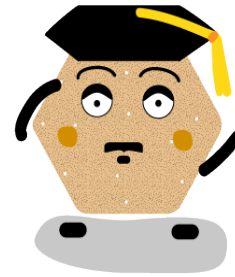

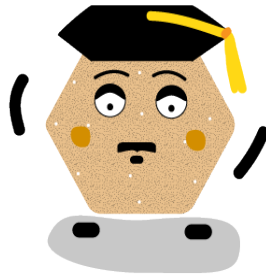

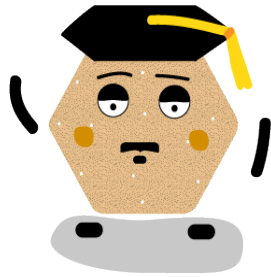

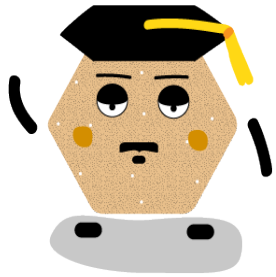

Achievements: staying alive

Friends: Mr. Cracker

Mr. Baguette is a lost individual in this world. He usually has nothing to do except for hang out with his one and only friend Mr. Cracker. He is laid-back. Nothing much disturbs him, not even the fact that he has just one tooth left (he lost the other teeth in previous adventures with Mr. Cracker). He is a bit clumsy and not very bright, however there are times when couple of neurons in his brain connect and he solves a very complex problem.

SPRITE SHEET AND BACKGROUND

LINK

<http://esterkotubej.com/Character/>